Reviews:

"Cordery is a mesmerising performer while he is in the air. There is something transfixing about the way he moves, the way he builds and releases tension both in the ropes and in the room." -Art Murmurs

"Mesmerising and concentrated, the skill of the performer, the visceral closeness of the ropes and the body, the images created and sustained and the relationship with the audience who are slowly brought into the immersive performance are totally worth experiencing." -Theatreview
